

Meditation Scriptures:

And I give them eternal life, and they shall never perish; neither shall anyone snatch them out of My hand.

John 10: 28 NKJV

For whoever find me finds life, and obtains favor from the Lord.

Proverbs 8:35 NKJV

“Everything is possible for him who believes.”

Mark 9:23 NIV

Be of good courage, and He shall strengthen your heart, all you hope in the Lord.

Psalms 31:24 NKJV

Everything that was written in the past was written to teach us, so that through endurance and the encouragement of the Scriptures we might have hope.

Romans 15:4 NIV

Yearning Heart

God’s word is the breath that gives life to mankind. Throughout scripture God protects, leads, corrects and blesses his chosen people and prepares a sinful rebellious world for reconciliation through the life and death of his son Jesus. Through the ages, the power of God’s word has inspired human greatness, convicted disobedience, and shielded faithful followers from attacks of the enemy. Given by inspiration of the Holy Spirit, the Word of God shares with a weary traveler the love of a devoted savior whose primary purpose is to draw all man unto Him and restore the wandering heart.

As one seeks to become familiar with the words of scripture, the stories told come alive where one finds it difficult to not superimpose oneself into the story, chapter by chapter. The sheer vitality of God’s presence woven into every verse bears witness of the awesome power of a loving Father who felt it necessary to give His people hope. “Now hope does not disappoint, because the love of God has been poured out in our hearts by the Holy Spirit who was given to us.” (Romans 5:5, NIV) It is in that hope that I pledge my allegiance to surrender myself, body, mind, and spirit to be used as a vessel to accomplish the total work of God’s ministry.

“Now hope does not disappoint, because the love of God has been poured out in our hearts by the Holy Spirit who was given to us.” (Romans 5:5, NIV)

Welcome to the first issue of the “RealEstate Revelations,” a realistic faith based view in Real Estate. With the purpose of inspiration, encouragement, and food for the soul, I pray you find the fulfillment you need within these words to serve God first, family second, and your clients lastly but not least. What a privilege and ministry that God has given us as Real Estate professionals to help find shelter for those in need. A life dedicated to serving others is the highest honor that we can provide to each client and to display to the world the love of Christ. I know it is easy in these tumultuous times to lose faith and find solace in worldly treasures, but remember the words of King David when he said “I have been young, and now am old; yet have I not seen the righteous forsaken, nor his seed begging bread” (Psalm 37:25, KJV). “Finally, my brothers and sisters, stay strong in the Lord, and the power of His might” (Ephesians 6:10, NIV).

May God Richly Bless You,
